Midwest Marlins

Welcome to the Marlins Player Profile Registration! Please provide us some information about yourself and your baseball interests. This will help us help you in the recruiting process.

Below are the items we'd like to collect to help you in the recruiting process. Your coach can help you collect some of these items and will place them on your roster page. He can also create a bio page with the info that you can send to college coaches. Your coach will also use this information to populate recruiting tools like Fieldlevel.

If you've already filled out a player profile for your coach, or given him this information, please just fill in the information that needs changed or updated. If this is your first time completing a player profile, fill in everything that you can and we'll help you collect the rest.
