

College commitment interview questions:

- Marlins: Which college have you committed to?
- Marlins: How does it feel to know that you'll be playing college baseball and why?
- Marlins: What is your favorite thing about the college you chose and why?
- Marlins: How do you see yourself contributing to your new college baseball team?
- Marlins: What do you know about your new coach? And, how will you go about getting to know him and his staff and what they expect of a new team member?
- Marlins: What do think will be the most challenging about college baseball?
- Marlins: How does it feel to be facing your final year of school ball?
- Marlins: Will you approach your final year of school ball and summer ball differently now that you are a committed college baseball player?
- Marlins: What is the biggest thing you'll carry forward from the Marlins to your college career?
- Marlins: What advice would you give other Marlins going through the recruiting process and considering a college baseball career?
- Marlins: Do you know your major yet?
- Marlins: What do you think will be the first thing you do when you get to campus?
- Marlins: Prediction – how much weight do you think you'll gain your freshman year in college?